TO LET DORMITORY CONTRACT FEB. 23

BOARD OF REGENTS SET DATE AT ST. JOSEPH YESTERDAY.

PLAN FINISH BY SEPT. 1

Some Contractors Already Figuring--Bids to Be Advertised for in Local Papers and Trade Publications.

The contract for the girl's new dormitory for the State Teachers College is to be let February 23, it was decided yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the board of regents held at the Hotel Robidoux in St. Joseph with Rudopa Meir, the architect. It is the intention to have the building completed by September 1.

Uel W. Lamkin, president of the college, said this morning that several St. Joseph contractors are already figuring on the building and that contractors from St. Louis, Des Moines and Kansas City have asked for the plans with the intention of making bids. Mr. Lamkin said that advertising of the fact that the contract will be let February 23 will be done in the Maryville and St. Joseph papers and also in the contractors magazines of the country.

The plans for the new dormitory were thoroughly inspected by the regents before it was decided to advertise for the bids.

The bids will be opened at the next meeting of the board of regents which will be held February 23.

The structure, as proposed, will be three stories above the basement and 202x63 feet in dimensions. It will house about 160 girls and its dining room will accomodate a considerably larger number, taking care of many girls who room elsewhere.

The location chosen for the dormitory is on the east side of the campus 350 yards southeast of the administration building. The main exposures will be east and west. Construction will be of red brick and stone trimmings, with steel frame and reinforced concrete. It will be strictly fireproof. The style of architecture will be similar to that employed in the administration building.

The members of the board, all of whom attended the conference, are: Wesley Blagg of Maryville, president; C. F. Ward, Plattsburg; George M. Stevenson, Tarkio; T. D. Parr, Hamilton; Charles L. Mosley, Stanberry; B. G. Voorhees, St. Joseph, and Sam A. Baker, Jefferson City, state superintendent of schools, and an ex-officio member of the board.

PASTOR WILFLEY AIDS WOMEN HELD IN RUINS

Brother of George L. Wilfley of This City Tells of Heroism of Victims In Washington Disaster

The following is from the Washington Star about the Rev. Earl Wilfley, a brother of George L. Wilfley of this city:

Heroism and fortitude of victims buried beneath the wreckage at the Knickerbocker Treater was praised today by the Rev. Earl Wilfley, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, who worked for four hours Saturday night helping in the rescue work.

"I was tremendously impressed with the great fortitude shown by many of the women beneath the wreckage," Dr. Wilfley told a representative of The Star today.

"At one time I held the head of a woman who was pinned beneath a great weight of iron and concrete," Dr. Wilfley said. "As I held her head, she smiled despite the great pain, and said, 'You are very kind, sir,' much as if she had been in a drawing room."

At one spot, Dr. Wilfley came upon a mother crushed beneath a girder, but calmly attempting to soothe her little boy, imprisoned by the weight with her. This woman died, but the boy was removed.

Another woman, nearby, also caught in the ruins, spoke of the heroism of the dead woman next her, and took up the task of keeping the child as warm as possible, although herself suffering from great pain. This woman told the rescuer of the suffering borne uncomplainingly by the mother while attempting to pacify her child. Dr. Wilfley declared that the heroism of victims will be one of the unforgettable memories of his life.

IT PAYS TO TEACH VITALIZED AG. WORK

SOMERVILLE SAYS GOOD FOR TEACHERS TO TAKE TRAINING.

HOLD BEST POSITIONS

Can Also Do Much to Help Community—Twelve Schools Made Improvements Recently.

It is to the interest of the teachers of the county to prepare themselves to teach vitalized agriculture, according to Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools. Mr. Somerville said this morning that a survey of the schools just completed in Nodaway county shows that the teachers of the county who are teaching vitalized agriculture receive the best salaries and have the most attractive positions. Mr. Somerville says that in addition to doing much to help himself by getting a vitalized agriculture training a teacher fits himself for doing much good in the community in which he works.

Mr. Somerville submitted the following list of schools in the county that have made improvements in their grounds and equipment recently:

Highland school, located 4 miles northeast of Maryville, Mrs. Orville Busby, teacher, has put on beaver board ceiling and wainscoating, painted house inside and out, and added vestibule.

MARYVILLE WINS 2 OF 4 CONTESTS

WON TWO BASKETBALL GAMES—LOST ONE AND DEBATE.

LOCALS 31 BENTON 14

Last Night Was Most Successful of the Season for M. H. S. in Basketball—Unfortunate in Debate.

Maryville won two big victories in school contests last night and lost two. The boys' basketball team of the Maryville High School won from the team of the Benton High School of St. Joseph by a score of 31 to 14, the high school girls won from the girls of the Tarkio High School by a score of 27 to 18, the Maryville High School debating team lost to the team of the Benton High School by a unanimous decision of the judges and the basketball team of the State Teachers College lost to the team of the Southwest Missouri State Teachers College at Springfield by a score of 21 to 25.

Last night was the most successful one for the high school in the line of basketball this year. Both the girls' and boys' team have lost games but the victories last night were complete.

Boys Good by Spurts.

The Maryville High School boys played good and bad ball by spurts. At times the team work and basket shooting was better than it has been at any time this year and other times it was rather poor. Maryville snatched the lead when the ball was touched off from center and Ellis made a spectacular long distance shot from along the south boundaries of the court. She never allowed St. Joseph to take the lead, but twice the score was a tie. This occurred once just before the first half was over. The score stood 11 to 11. Then Masters dropped in a field goal and before the ball struck the floor the report of the pistol rang throughout the gymnasium. The second time the score was a tie shortly after the second half began when Benton made a couple of free throws and the score was 13 to 13.

During the last half of the first period and the first part of the second period Maryville seemed to get to a point where she could not go any further. Ellis could not make the free throws and no one seemed to be able to make field goals. Then Fannon was taken out and Keef was put in his place at center. The Maryville boys seemed to regain their stride and at once things began to go against Benton. Ellis began making the free throws and Smith began making field goals. On the other hand the Bentons seemed to loose all their luck for during the entire second half the only scoring they did was three free goals.

Following is the box score:

Benton (14).

	Goals	Free
McClelland	2	2
Hamilton	0	0
Filbert	0	0
Flamank	0	5
Thrailkill	0	3

PHILOMATHEANS TO GIVE "HAPPINESS"

SHOWS THAT WE LOOK IN WRONG PLACE

HAS OPTIMISTIC STRAIN

Deals With the Awakening of Those Who See Nothing in Life—Miss Dow, Director

"Happiness," the play which is to be given by the Philomathean Literary Society of the College Thursday, February 16, shows that in the search for happiness, people often look far away when it may be found near home. The story of the play is:

Two wealthy young people, Mr. Philip Chandos and Mrs. Chrystal-Pole, bored with everything in general, even life, which seems to be a mere number of years during which one waits to die, decide to try something new. The change is brought about by a little errand girl, who, though shabbily dressed and poor, is still happy. Her cheerfulness, when she seemingly has so little to be cheerful about, causes the awakening of a spirit in Mrs. Chrystal-Pole which has for years lain dormant. She then aids Jennie, the shop girl in securing customers and finally helps her to start a dress making shop of her own.

Mr. Chandos, noticing the change in Mrs. Chrystal-Pole decides that he, too, will go to work. He first enters the lumber business. Later he finds a young Irishman, Fermoy MacDonagh, who also desires to start into business for himself. Mr. Chandos helps him to start an electrical shop. MacDonagh is very much in love with Jennie and they find their "happiness" in a home of their own with both shops prospering.

Mrs. Chrystal-Pole becomes quite a well known power abroad and she too, finds happiness in giving it to others. Mr. Chandos finds that study and interest in his work relieves him of boredom and he becomes an optimist.

The play is a cleverly written comedy. The witty tongue of the young Irishman finds its match in that of Jennie, furnishing the comedy element throughout the play and creating much enjoyment for the audience.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Philip Chandos, the wealthy young man—Jason Kemp.

Fermoy MacDonagh, an Irishman—Harvey Richie.

John Scowcroft, father of Mrs. Chrystal-Pole—Paul Rogers.

Waiter—James Draper.

Mrs. Chrystal-Pole, a wealthy widow—Sylvia Littlejohn.

Miss Perkins, the human phonograph—Anna Mae Gillis.

Mrs. Wreay, mother of Jennie—Elvira Ward.

An Assistant—Daurice Culp.

An Applicant—Myrle Hankins.

Jennie, the shop girl—Lois Hankins.

The play was written by J. Hartley Manners, author of "Peg O' My Heart. Miss Blanche Dow will be the director and the performance will be given at the College Auditorium.

JUDGE DAWSON DENIES PETITION TO HOLD CAR

Held Section Intended for Violations Such as Sale, Manufacture and Storage of Liquors

Judge Dawson denied the application and petition of Prosecuting Attorney Charles F. McCaffrey to seize and hold the Buick automobile of Clyde Horn in which he and Grover Hatcher were traveling in last Sunday when arrested on a charge of having intoxicating liquors.

Judge Dawson held that section of the prohibition law which states any property, real or personal, vehicle, boat or structure, used in violation of the prohibition law was intended for violations such as the sale, manufacture and storage of intoxicating liquors, and does not apply to the possession or transportation as is charged against Horn and Hatcher.

This was the first case of its kind in court here. The application asks the court to authorize the sheriff to seize and hold the automobile to await the result of the trial of criminal cases and in event of a conviction is had to order and direct the sheriff to sell the car and to apply proceeds of sale to payment of fine.

LARGEST CIRCULATION IN NODAWAY COUNTY

HOUSEHOLD BUDGETS.

One of the modern plans for promoting economy is the household budget scheme. People are urged to allow certain given amounts for each department of expense and hold themselves rigidly down to those limits.

Some people spend money just as fast as they get it, whether they seriously need the things they buy or not. If they have the money in their purse, they shell it out until it is gone. Then they get along on credit until some more comes in. It may take a good part of the week or month to clean up the unpaid bills, before they start on the new things that are needed.

The budget habit naturally involves keeping a cash account, and to make the thing work, this record of expenses must be faithfully maintained, which ought to be done anyway in order to make income tax and other reports properly. Many people forget so much of their spending, that the account fails to show where a large part of their income is going. Both budget and cash account suggest the idea that every item of expense is an imporant matter, to be carefully considered.

People will do well to figure up carefully every month how their expenses are going, and if their total is running too high for their income, the necessity of economy is more clearly seen. People who do not keep cash accounts and who do not lay out any budget of expenses, almost always find that they have spent much more than they realized.

If everyone would keep a cash account faithfully, it would be discovered that large sums had disappeared for trifles and ill considered and useless expenses. A little small change every day does not seem to amount to much, yet the total becomes a stream of waste. This consideration of minor expenses seems stingy to some folks. Yet the people who do not learn this form of self restraint, are usually hard up all their lives. When they need a reserve of cash to open some door of opportunity, they lack it altogether.

A Maryland Congressman has had a brilliant idea. He wants Congress to pass a law authorizing the sale of wines and beers with a tax in order to raise money to pay the soldiers' bonus. He is more interested in the brewers than in the soldiers.

Our ancestors were not so slow after all. It is recorded that in England 110 years ago, wool was shorn from two sheep at 5 o'clock in the morning and in 14 hours, the wool had been washed, dried, spun, dyed, woven into cloth and tailored into a coat. The coat is still in existence.

The farmer's problem seems to be purely one of price and not of sales. Wheat exports last year were 279,948,601 bushels, against 218,287,334 in 1920. Corn exports jumped from 17,761,120 bushels in 1920, to 129,054,505 bushels in 1921. Rice jumped from 392,612,255 pounds to 600,058,978 pounds. Cotton exports were 6,474,[illegible] bales in 1921. The falling off in farm exports is a pure and simple price slump. Actual shipments have gained.

The postoffice at Mt. Pleasant, Gentry County, has again gone into operation, with Dr. L. M. Chilton as Postmaster.

We are informed that the postoffice at Xenia in this county has been discontinued by order of the Postoffice Department, and that all mail formerly sent to this office will hereafter go to Hopkins.

Our energetic and enterprising little town of Graham is to have a newspaper, at least we so infer from the fact that there is a printing machine at the express office on which the charges are some $65, shipped for Graham. Doc Morgan will probably be editor in chief and Doc Brand the local. Uncle Andy Brown and uncle Jimmie Linville are to the the type stickers and R. C. Bohart will officiate as devil. The paper will be semi-occasionally Democratic and Radical and we wish it abundant success. For a name, we would suggest the Brownville Trumpet and for a motto "Blessed is he who bloweth his own horn, for if he bloweth it not, it shall not be blowed."

A. T. Jenkins has just sold what is known as the old Washburn farm, lying just north of Xenia, comprising over four hundred acres with two hundred acres improved, to Merill Otis, at eleven dollars per acre. This was a very low price, as it is one of the very best farms in the county. The terms of the sale were liberal, as Mr. Otis has five years to pay for it.

Coach Brothers was in charge of the Benton team.

Girls Took Early Lead.

Within a quarter of a minute of the time that the ball was knocked off at center in the girls' game it was passed to Owens and she made a field goal. From this time on Maryville continued to increase the lead. At the end of the first half the score was 13 to 10 in favor of the Maryville girls and they made eleven points in the second half, while the Tarkio girls were making eight points. E. Raines and Owens did the scoring for Maryville. Raines made eight field goals and two free throws and Owens made four field goals and one free throw.

Following is the box score:

Maryville (27).

	Goals	Free
E. Raines	8	2
Owens	4	1
New	0	0
Pugh	0	0
O'Banion	0	0
M. Raines	0	0

Tarkio (18).

Thomas of Tarkio was the referee and Miss Ruby Cochran was in charge of the Tarkio girls.

S. T. C. Held Score Close.

The State Teachers College boys held their opponents to the closest score of the season in the game against the Springfield State Teachers College at Springfield. "The game was anybody's until the whistle blew," read Coach Sprong's telegram.

Foreman was injured in the game with the State Teachers College on Thursday evening and was not able to play last night. Mr. Sprong says that Kirby and Puckett starred.

The Maryville S. T. C. team will journey today to Rolla where they will play the team of the Rolla School of Mines this evening. They will conclude their series for the tour on Monday evening at Kirksville, when they play the State Teachers College team there.

Baker and Moore Lost.

Richard Baker and Harold Moore, the representatives of the Maryville High School against the Benton High School in the debate at St. Joseph last night, lost by a unanimous decision of the judges. This eliminates Maryville from the contest for this season.

The representatives of the St. Joseph school were Dorotha McClain and John Wright. The judges were L. K. Campbell, superintendent of school at Liberty, Prof. O. G. Sanford, superintendent of schools at Trenton and Mr. O. E. Jones of Albany.

The Maryville team was accompanied by D. W. Buford the debating coach, of the local high school.

"I was well pleased with the debate," says Mr. Burford," and although the boys were defeated they were exceptionally good and were a credit to themselves and to the high school. The composition was strong. Inspite of the fact that the boys put up a better debate than the team did against Bolckow they were defeated."

The Benton team had the negative side of the question and by their remarkable deliveries won the judges decision. Miss Lumox was their coach.

Next Week At the Movies

At The Empire

Betty Compson, the new Paramount star was seen to fine advantage in "The Little Minister," a splendid Paramount picture produced by Penrhyn Stanlaws, on its first presentation nevt Monday and Tuesday. This capable young star was charming as Lady Babbie and she brought to the role the gypsy-like character which it demands. All who have read the novel by James M. Barrie, or seen the play in which Maude Adams scored so decisively several years ago, will be delighted with this picture.

Miss Compson was ably supported by George Hackathorne as Gavin, the little minister and Nigel Barrie as the hateful Captain Halliwell. The entire cast indeed was beyond criticism and the settings showing the Thrums village, the manse, kirk and so on, were admirably executed. Much credit is due the producer, Penrhyn Stanlaws, for a well sustained and artistically presented screen version of this famous story.

When Will Rogers comes to the Empire Theater on Wednesday and Thursday in his latest Goldwyn picture, "An Unwilling Hero," another famous story by O. Henry, America's best known short story writer, will have reached the screen. The original title of this story was "Whistling Dick's Christmas Stocking," and the leading character is a lovable tramp, whom Will Rogers can impersonate better than any actor now on the screen.

In "An Unwilling Hero" Will Rogers is a hobo who has a penchant for whistling operatic airs. His companions decide to commit a robbery, but this is beyond the whisling hobo's field of activities. Fearing him, the other tramps bind him to a tree, but he succeeds in warning the owner of a plantation of the plan to rob his home. As a reward, Whistling Dick (Will Rogers) is offered a job, but he remains true to the call of the road. How the unwilling hero manages to keep his hands from work results in some of the most humorous situations in which Will Rogers has ever found himself.

The picture was directed by Clarence Badger, who has held the megaphone in many previous Will Rogers photoplays.

On Friday and Saturday a new feature, "Wild Goose," will be shown. This is a special Paramount feature and is said to be one of the best recent productions of this company. No advance information has been received on this picture.

At The Electric

On Monday night the second episode of the new serial, "Winners of the West" will be shown. This is a historical picture of pioneer life and scenes are laid on the trail of the great trail-breaking expedition from Boonville, Mo., to California. Such well known historical pictures as John C. Fremont and Kit Carson are shown in the picture. There will also be a two reel western and a comedy.

On Tuesday and Wednesday Wanda Hawley will be seen in, "The Love Charm." In this picture she takes the role of Ruth Sheldon, a "poor relation," who used as household drudge and dressmaker by her aunt and cousin, with whom she lives. By her old-fashioned charm and womanliness, which remind him of his mother, she wins the affection of Thomas Morgan, a rich young man whom the Nasts have decided would be a good match for Hattis. The Nasts are furious with Ruth, who then promises to alienate Tom's love in the same way she had won it—by making herself a symbol, this time of something he hates—jazz and vulgarity. She makes a spectacle of herself at a noisy party, and Tom is disgusted. Ruth then leaves, but someone tells Tom why she had acted so, and he hunts her up to woo her all over again.

On Thursday night Pauline Frederick will be seen in the feature role of "Sting of the Lash."

Corinne Griffith will be featured Friday night in, "The Single Track."

"The Single Track" is a story of love, adventure and the regaining of a lost fortune. It is somewhat different in type from the usual Corinne Griffith production in that but a small portion of the story deals with society life. She is, however, afforded opportunity to wear many of the beautiful gowns for which she has become renowned. The picture is replete with dramatic, comedy and thrilling situations, and is as well rounded out as any photodrama.

"Who Am I?" a new National Picture, will be shown Saturday night.

The story is a tense, thrilling, dramatic plot based on the efforts of a beautiful girl to discover her true identity. The mystery surrounding her nativity is disclosed only to reveal another even more baffling.

The luxurious surroundings of a gambling house where fortunes are made and lost on the turn of a card form the background for a majority of the scenes, and the staging and costuming of this picture are said to set a new mark for extravagant and lavish expenditure on the part of the producers.

	Daily Only	Daily and Sunday
12 months	$6.00	$8.50
6 months	3.25	4.50
3 months	1.75	2.50

These prices are now back to normal and as low as formerly, considering that approximately $2.00 more per yearly subscription is paid the government for postage than a few years ago. This, of course, is not within the control of any newspaper.

Special Club-Raisers' Rates.

As in former years, the Globe-Democrat is making a special club-raisers' rate, reduced from the regular rates when three or more yearly subscriptions, by mail, are sent at one time. The club-raisers' rate now in force is $15.75 net for a club of three yearly subscriptions to the Daily (only) Globe-Democrat, or $23.25 for a club of three yearly Daily and Sunday Globe-Democrat subscriptions. This reduces the price to each club member to $5.25 for the Daily and $7.75 for the Daily and Sunday Globe-Democrat. More than three subscriptions can be included in a club, at the same club-raisers' rates.

Not a Reduction in Quality

This price reduction does not mean that either the quantity or quality that Globe-Democrat readers have grown accustomed to will be reduced. Regular readers will continue to enjoy and benefit by the same extensive up-to-the last minute news service, the same accurate complete market and financial reports, the same editorial page, renowned and quoted all over the world and the same vast store of unequalled features that have placed the Globe-Democrat among the leading newspapers in the universe.

The heel of her shoe was caught in a crack in the floor of the platform which threw her down and caused her to fall to the pavement below. She was hurried to her home and attended by a physician, who was unable to determine the full extent of her injuries at that time. Later examination, however, showed the injuries were not serious as was feared at the time.

FROM TARKIO.

A prominent citizen of Tarkio was in Maryville last week and called on Doctor Baker and had his eyes fitted with glasses, then he said Doctor; it seems to me a man of your ability and master of your profession would move to a large city, why do you remain in the little town of Maryville? The Doctor answered by asking why don't Mayo Bro's. leave the little town of Rochester, Minn., and move to a large city. It's Service the people want and not city, then he took out his note case and showed over 3000 signatures of people who he has fitted with glasses the few years he has been in Maryville, many have came from a distance of 70 miles. LAMKIN MAKES PLEA FOR THE RURAL SCHOOL

President of S. T. C. In Address At Trenton Says Country School Don't Get Square Deal

The Trenton Republican-Tribune had the following in Friday's issue about Uel W. Lamkin:

Uel Lamkin, president of the Maryville State Teachers College made a plea for the rural schools Thursday night at the Methodist Church. His defense of them and his plea for help was forceful and appealing.

"We used to say," he started in his easy way, "that the home was responsible for its children and the education of them. Then we said the community or district is responsible, but now it is the state and nation."

This statement followed the declaration that he wanted to see the time come when the boy or girl living in the towns like Galt, and Spickard have the same opportunity as the boy who lives in the shadow of Soldan High School in St. Louis. He had gone further and stated that he wished to see the same opportunity accorded the boy in the country school as is accorded the boy and girl in the town and city schools.

"I still believe and think," he said, "that the hope of the nation lies in the Middle West in the country. I have been in the cities, but I am convinced that in the Middle West will be solved the great problems of this country."

Mr. Lamkin told of a survey in a county, the name of which he did not mention. They found in the county the rural school student far behind, and so far that the figures would not be made public.

Mr. Lamkin favored the county unit bill. The school district cuts up the money, he maintained, so that the county gets little benefit for the amount of money now spent on rural schools, if spent under the county unit system, would be a vast improvement to the schools. As a whole, it is said, it would not increase taxes. He grieved, he said over districts which paid for poor teachers for two or three pupils just because the tax rate was low.

Governor Hyde was complimented by Mr. Lamkin on his stand for the schools and the work he had done for them and is doing. Particularly did the Governor help the county unit bill."

DE MOLAY PLAY MAY BE GIVEN IN TARKIO

"Believe Me Xantippe" Will Probably Be Played In Connection With Forming of New Chapter

"Believe Me Xantippe," the home talent play which was presented by the local chapter, Order of De Molay two weeks ago, will probably be given in Tarkio sometime the last of the month. At this time a De Molay chapter will also probably be organizaed in that city.

Yesterday William Mapel and William Geist went to Tarkio and met several of the prominent Masons of that city and tentative plans were made to institute a De Molay chapter there. At a meeting of the Tarkio Masons next Thursday night the matter will be taken up and will be considered fully. If it is found that a chapter can be maintained in Tarkio, the degree teams from the Maryville chapter will go to Tarkio and give the work. They will also install the new officers of the Tarkio chapter.

It is also planned to give the De Molay play at the same time as the installation of the new chapter. If the proposed plan works out the Maryville cast will appear in Tarkio for two nights either the last of February or the first of March.

Plans are also being made to have a meeting with the leaders of the Masonic order in Stanberry in the near future and if possible to get a De Molay chapter installed there. The movement has been agitated there to some extent and a committee of De Molays will likely visit that city some time next week.

The local De Molays are well prepared to give all of the degree work. All of the robes and properties for that purpose are already in use and all of the parts of the degrees have been committed to memory.

If the chapters are installed in other towns, the DeMolay drill patrol of thirty-two members will accompany the degree teams and will give several exhibition drills.

This patrol may possibly be taken to the state Conclave of the De Molays which will be held at St. Louis next July.

LEGION LOST AT WESTBORO.

Court Was Small and Maryville Boys Were Handicapped.

The basketball team of the James Edward Gray Post, American Legion, was defeated by a score of [illegible] to [illegible] at Westboro last night. It is said that Westboro has a poor court with two stoves in it, so that is it almost impossible for a strange team to get onto the plays well enough to defeat the Westboro team, which has not been defeated on the home court in two years. It is said, however, that the Maryville boys held them last night to the closest score that they have had on the home court during the two year victorious period.

Following is the Maryville line-up Gilliam and Egley, forwards; Welling, center; Bock and Miller, Guards.

TO LET DORMITORY CONTRACT FEB. 23

BOARD OF REGENTS SET DATE AT ST. JOSEPH YESTERDAY.

PLAN FINISH BY SEPT. 1

Some Contractors Already Figuring--Bids to Be Advertised for in Local Papers and Trade Publications.

The contract for the girl's new dormitory for the State Teachers College is to be let February 23, it was decided yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the board of regents held at the Hotel Robidoux in St. Joseph with Rudolph Meir, the architect. It is the intention to have the building completed by September 1.

Uel W. Lamkin, president of the college, said this morning that several St. Joseph contractors are already figuring on the building and that contractors from St. Louis, Des Moines and Kansas City have asked for the plans with the intention of making bids. Mr. Lamkin said that advertising of the fact that the contract will be let February 23 will be done in the Maryville and St. Joseph papers and also in the contractors magazines of the country.

The plans for the new dormitory were thoroughly inspected by the regents before it was decided to advertise for the bids.

The bids will be opened at the next meeting of the board of regents which will be held February 23.

The structure, as proposed, will be three stories above the basement and 202x63 feet in dimensions. It will house about 160 girls and its dining room will accomodate a considerably larger number, taking care of many girls who room elsewhere.

The location chosen for the dormitory is on the east side of the campus 350 yards southeast of the administration building. The main exposures will be east and west. Construction will be of red brick and stone trimmings, with steel frame and reinforced concrete. It will be strictly fireproof. The style of architecture will be similar to that employed in the administration building.

The members of the board, all of whom attended the conference, are: Wesley Blagg of Maryville, president; C. F. Ward, Plattsburg; George M. Stevenson, Tarkio; T. D. Parr, Hamilton; Charles L. Mosley, Stanberry; E. G. Voorhees, St. Joseph, and Sam A. Baker, Jefferson City, state superintendent of schools, and an ex-officio member of the board.

PASTOR WILFLEY AIDS WOMEN HELD IN RUINS

Brother of George L. Wilfley of This City Tells of Heroism of Victims In Washington Disaster

The following is from the Washington Star about the Rev. Earl Wilfley, a brother of George L. Wilfley of this city:

Heroism and fortitude of victims buried beneath the wreckage at the Knickerbocker Treater was praised today by the Rev. Earl Wilfley, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, who worked for four hours Saturday night helping in the rescue work.

"I was tremendously impressed with the great fortitude shown by many of the women beneath the wreckage," Dr. Wilfley told a representative of The Star today.

"At one time I held the head of a woman who was pinned beneath a great weight of iron and concrete," Dr. Wilfley said. "As I held her head, she smiled despite the great pain, and said, 'You are very kind, sir,' much as if she had been in a drawing room."

At one spot, Dr. Wilfley came upon a mother crushed beneath a girder, but calmly attempting to soothe her little boy, imprisoned by the weight with her. This woman died, but the boy was removed.

Another woman, nearby, also caught in the ruins, spoke of the heroism of the dead woman next her, and took up the task of keeping the child as warm as possible, although herself suffering from great pain. This woman told the rescuer of the suffering borne uncomplainingly by the mother while attempting to pacify her child.

Dr. Wilfley declared that the heroism of victims will be one of the unforgettable memories of his life.

Because Twenty-five Years Limit and 4¼ Per Cent Limitation In Finding Law

Washington, Feb. 4—The foreign debt funding operations are possibly seriously delayed because the twenty-five years limit and four and one-quarter per cent interest limitation in the funding law, officials said today. The British negotiations are expected to be untroubled but the smaller nations in Europe will have great difficulty, it is expected.

The foreign debt funding commission probably will consist of the following: Secretary of Treasury Mellon, Secretary of Commerce Hoover, Secretary of War Weeks and Senator Porter J. McCumber, chairman of the senate finance committee and Rep. J. W. Fordney, chairman of the ways and means committee.

GROVER HATCHER ALSO FACES A STATE CHARGE

Bonds Made to the City By Mother And Brother--Arrest By Deputy Sheriff Followed

Grover Hatcher, who lives south of Graham and who was arrested in Maryville Sunday afternoon on a charge of possession and transporting intoxicating liquor was released from the city jail yesterday afternoon after he had given bond of $1,000. The bond was made by his mother, Mrs. Ellen E. Hatcher, his brother J. J. Hatcher. The bond was made to C. F. Remus, who is acting mayor in the absence of Mayor F. P. Hatcher's trial and the trial of Clyde Horn, who was arrested at the same time that Hatcher was, will be held Tuesday morning.

The boys' team of the Pickering High School won last night from the boys' team of the Burlington Junction High School by a score of 17 to 12 and the girls team of the Pickering High School lost to the girls' team of the Burlington Junction High School by a score of 16 to 1 in a double header game.

The boys' game was a fast one from the start to the finish. At the end of the first half the score was 9 to 4 in favor of Pickering. During the second half each side made eight points.

Following is the line-up for the two games:

Pickering—Durks and Smith, forwards; Houston, center; Richard and S. Smith, guards.

It was said this morning at Pickering that it had been announced that the boys' game was to have been played in Maryville but that this announcement was an error. The game was originally scheduled to be held at Pickering and the schedule was never changed.

Last night was the twelfth game that the Pickering boys have played this year and they have won them all, with the exception of one, lost to Maryville. This is the second time they have defeated Burlington Junction.

IT PAYS TO TEACH VITALIZED AG. WORK

SOMERVILLE SAYS GOOD FOR TEACHERS TO TAKE TRAINING.

HOLD BEST POSITIONS

Can Also Do Much to Help Community—Twelve Schools Made Improvements Recently.

It is to the interest of the teachers of the county to prepare themselves to teach vitalized agriculture, according to Leslie G. Somerville, county superintendent of schools. Mr. Somerville said this morning that a survey of the schools just completed in Nodaway county shows that the teachers of the county who are teaching vitalized agriculture receive the best salaries and have the most attractive positions. Mr. Somerville says that in addition to doing much to help himself by getting a vitalized agriculture training a teacher fits himself for doing much good in the community in which he works.

Mr. Somerville submitted the following list of schools in the county that have made improvements in their grounds and equipment recently:

Highland school, located 4 miles northeast of Maryville, Mrs. Orville Busby, teacher, has put on beaver board ceiling and wainscoating, painted house inside and out, and added vestibule.

Champaign school, located 6 miles northwest of Ravenwood, Miss Ruth DeBord, teacher, has added new floor and new window lights and repaired toilets.

Ireland school, located 2 miles east of Wilcox, Miss Leta Babb, teacher, has added new books and work bench.

Mt. Vernon school, located 3 miles northeast of Wilcox, Mrs. Flossie Tanner, teacher, has added books and work bench.

Griffith school, located 2 miles northwest of Wilcox, Mrs. Eugene Hall, teacher, has added new library books.

Council Corner school, located 4 miles east of Maryville, Miss Esther Busby, teacher, has screened the door and windows and painted and papered the walls of room.

Lasher school, located 5 miles south west of Maryville, Miss Iva Williams, teacher, has shingled and painted house, painted outside buildings, painted inside of room and added new books and lightning rods.

Albright school, located 3 miles northeast of Skidmore, Miss Zona Hoyt, teacher, has shingled house, painted walls of room, built cement step at door and added new books.

Gill school, located 6 miles northeast of Skidmore, Mrs. Emma Phipps, teacher, has put stucco on outside of building, plastered and painted walls of room and added new foundation.

Peace and Harmony school, located 5 miles east of Skidmore, Mrs. Bess Cottrill, teacher, has painted walls and floor, and added new sand table.

East Star school, located 7 miles southeast of Skidmore, Miss Dora Lockhart, teacher, has added new blinds, curtains and dictionary.

MARYVILLE WINS 2 OF 4 CONTESTS

WON TWO BASKETBALL GAMES—LOST ONE AND DEBATE.

LOCALS 31 BENTON 14

Last Night Was Most Successful of the Season for M. H. S. in Basketball—Unfortunate in Debate.

Maryville won two big victories in school contests last night and lost two. The boys' basketball team of the Maryville High School won from the team of the Benton High School of St. Joseph by a score of 31 to 14, the high school girls won from the girls of the Tarkio High School by a score of 27 to 18, the Maryville High School debating team lost to the team of the Benton High School by a unanimous decision of the judges and the basketball team of the State Teachers College lost to the team of the Southwest Missouri State Teachers College at Springfield by a score of 21 to 25.

Last night was the most successful one for the high school in the line of basketball this year. Both the girls' and boys' team have lost games but the victories last night were complete.

Boys Good by Spurts.

The Maryville High School boys played good and bad ball by spurts. At times the team work and basket shooting was better than it has been at any time this year and other times it was rather poor. Maryville snatched the lead when the ball was touched off from center and Ellis made a spectacular long distance shot from along the south boundaries of the court. She never allowed St. Joseph to take the lead, but twice the score was a tie. This occurred once just before the first half was over. The score stood 11 to 11. Then Masters dropped in a field goal and before the ball struck the floor the report of the pistol rang throughout the gymnasium. The second time the score was a tie shortly after the second half began when Benton made a couple of free throws and the score was 13 to 13.

During the last half of the first period and the first part of the second period Maryville seemed to get to a point where she could not go any further. Ellis could not make the free throws and no one seemed to be able to make field goals. Then Fannon was taken out and Keef was put in his place at center. The Maryville boys seemed to regain their stride and at once things began to go against Benton. Ellis began making the free throws and Smith began making field goals. On the other hand the Bentons seemed to loose all their luck for during the entire second half the only scoring they did was three free goals.

Following is the box score:

Benton (14).

	Goals	Free
Filbert	0	0
Flamank	0	5
Thrailkill	0	3

PHILOMATHEANS TO GIVE "HAPPINESS"

SHOWS THAT WE LOOK IN WRONG PLACE

HAS OPTIMISTIC STRAIN

Deals With the Awakening of Those Who See Nothing in Life—Miss Dow, Director

"Happiness," the play which is to be given by the Philomathean Literary Society of the College Thursday, February 16, shows that in the search for happiness, people often look far away when it may be found near home. The story of the play is:

Two wealthy young people, Mr. Philip Chandos and Mrs. Chrystal-Pole, bored with everything in general, even life, which seems to be a mere number of years during which one waits to die, decide to try something new. The change is brought about by a little errand girl, who, though shabbily dressed and poor, is still happy. Her cheerfulness, when she seemingly has so little to be cheerful about, causes the awakening of a spirit in Mrs. Chrystal-Pole which has for years lain dormant. She then aids Jennie, the shop girl in securing customers and finally helps her to start a dress making shop of her own.

Mr. Chandos, noticing the change in Mrs. Chrystal-Pole decides that he, too, will go to work. He first enters the lumber business. Later he finds a young Irishman, Fermoy MacDonagh, who also desires to start into business for himself. Mr. Chandos helps him to start an electrical shop. MacDonagh is very much in love with Jennie and they find their "happiness" in a home of their own with both shops prospering.

Mrs. Chrystal-Pole becomes quite a well known power abroad and she too, finds happiness in giving it to others. Mr. Chandos finds that study and interest in his work relieves him of boredom and he becomes an optimist.

The play is a cleverly written comedy. The witty tongue of the young Irishman finds its match in that of Jennie, furnishing the comedy element throughout the play and creating much enjoyment for the audience.

The cast of characters is as follows:

Philip Chandos, the wealthy young man—Jason Kemp.

Fermoy MacDonagh, an Irishman—Harvey Richie.

John Scowcroft, father of Mrs. Chrystal-Pole—Paul Rogers.

Waiter—James Draper.

Mrs. Chrystal-Pole, a wealthy widow—Sylvia Littlejohn.

Miss Perkins, the human phonograph—Anna Mae Gillis.

Mrs. Wreay, mother of Jennie—Elvira Ward.

An Assistant—Daurice Culp.

An Applicant—Myrle Hankins.

Jennie, the shop girl—Lois Hankins.

The play was written by J. Hartley Manners, author of "Peg O' My Heart. Miss Blanche Dow will be the director and the performance will be given at the College Auditorium.

JUDGE DAWSON DENIES PETITION TO HOLD CAR

Held Section Intended for Violations Such as Sale, Manufacture and Storage of Liquors

Judge Dawson denied the application and petition of Prosecuting Attorney Charles F. McCaffrey to seize and hold the Buick automobile of Clyde Horn in which he and Grover Hatcher were traveling in last Sunday when arrested on a charge of having intoxicating liquors.

Judge Dawson held that section of the prohibition law which states any property, real or personal, vehicle, boat or structure, used in violation of the prohibition law was intended for violations such as the sale, manufacture and storage of intoxicating liquors, and does not apply to the possession or transportation as is charged against Horn and Hatcher.

This was the first case of its kind in court here. The application asks the court to authorize the sheriff to seize and hold the automobile to await the result of the trial of criminal cases and in event of a conviction is had to order and direct the sheriff to sell the car and to apply proceeds of sale to payment of fine.

HOUSEHOLD BUDGETS.

One of the modern plans for promoting economy is the household budget scheme. People are urged to allow certain given amounts for each department of expense and hold themselves rigidly down to those limits.

Some people spend money just as fast as they get it, whether they seriously need the things they buy or not. If they have the money in their purse, they shell it out until it is gone. Then they get along on credit until some more comes in. It may take a good part of the week or month to clean up the unpaid bills, before they start on the new things that are needed.

The budget habit naturally involves keeping a cash account, and to make the thing work, this record of expenses must be faithfully maintained, which ought to be done anyway in order to make income tax and other reports properly. Many people forget so much of their spending, that the account fails to show where a large part of their income is going. Both budget and cash account suggest the idea that every item of expense is an imporant matter, to be carefully considered.

People will do well to figure up carefully every month how their expenses are going, and if their total is running too high for their income, the necessity of economy is more clearly seen. People who do not keep cash accounts and who do not lay out any budget of expenses, almost always find that they have spent much more than they realized.

If everyone would keep a cash account faithfully, it would be discovered that large sums had disappeared for trifles and ill considered and useless expenses. A little small change every day does not seem to amount to much, yet the total becomes a stream of waste. This consideration of minor expenses seems stingy to some folks. Yet the people who do not learn this form of self restraint, are usually hard up all their lives. When they need a reserve of cash to open some door of opportunity, they lack it altogether.

A Maryland Congressman has had a brilliant idea. He wants Congress to pass a law authorizing the sale of wines and beers with a tax in order to raise money to pay the soldiers' bonus. He is more interested in the brewers than in the soldiers.

Our ancestors were not so slow after all. It is recorded that in England 110 years ago, wool was shorn from two sheep at 5 o'clock in the morning and in 14 hours, the wool had been washed, dried, spun, dyed, woven into cloth and tailored into a coat. The coat is still in existence.

The farmer's problem seems to be purely one of price and not of sales. Wheat exports last year were 279,948,601 bushels, against 218,287,334 in 1920. Corn exports jumped from 17,761,120 bushels in 1920, to 129,054,505 bushels in 1921. Rice jumped from 392,612,255 pounds to 600,058,978 pounds. Cotton exports were 6,174,[illegible] bales in 1921. The falling off in farm exports is a pure and simple price slump. Actual shipments have gained.

Fifty Years Ago

From the Nodaway Democrat January 31, 1872.

The postoffice at Mt. Pleasant, Gentry County, has again gone into operation, with Dr. L. M. Chilton as Postmaster.

We are informed that the postoffice at Xenia in this county has been discontinued by order of the Postoffice Department, and that all mail formerly sent to this office will hereafter go to Hopkins.

Our energetic and enterprising little town of Graham is to have a newspaper, at least we so infer from the fact that there is a printing machine at the express office on which the charges are some $65, shipped for Graham. Doc Morgan will probably be editor in chief and Doc Brand the local. Uncle Andy Brown and uncle Jimmie Linville are to the the type slickers and R. C. Bohart will officiate as devil. The paper will be semi-occasionally Democratic and Radical and we wish it abundant success. For a name, we would suggest the Brownville Trumpet and for a motto "Blessed is he who bloweth his own horn, for if he bloweth it not, it shall not be blowed."

A. T. Jenkins has just sold what is known as the old Washburn farm, lying just north of Xenia, comprising over four hundred acres with two hundred acres improved, to Merill Otis, at eleven dollars per acre. This was a very low price, as it is one of the very best farms in the county. The terms of the sale were liberal, as Mr. Otis has five years to pay for it.

We are informed that after February 15 a new grocery and provision store will be opened in the storeroom one door south of Schuster's Clothing store. The firm is to be composed of Messrs. James R. At the end of the first half the score was 13 to 10 in favor of the Maryville girls and they made eleven points in the second half, while the Tarkio girls were making eight points. E. Raines and Owens did the scoring for Maryville. Raines made eight field goals and two free throws and Owens made four field goals and one free throw.

S. T. C. Held Score Close.

The State Teachers College boys held their opponents to the closest score of the season in the game against the Springfield State Teachers College at Springfield. "The game was anybody's until the whistle blew," read Coach Sprong's telegram.

Foreman was injured in the game with the State Teachers College on Thursday evening and was not able to play last night. Mr. Sprong says that Kirby and Puckett starred.

The Maryville S. T. C. team will journey today to Rolla where they will play the team of the Rolla School of Mines this evening. They will conclude their series for the tour on Monday evening at Kirksville, when they play the State Teachers College team there.

Baker and Moore Lost.

Richard Baker and Harold Moore, the representatives of the Maryville High School against the Benton High School in the debate at St. Joseph last night, lost by a unanimous decision of the judges. This eliminates Maryville from the contest for this season.

The representatives of the St. Joseph school were Dorothy McClain and John Wright. The judges were L. K. Campbell, superintendent of school at Liberty, Prof. O. G. Sanford, superintendent of schools at Trenton and Mr. O. E. Jones of Albany.

The Maryville team was accompanied by D. W. Buford the debating coach, of the local high school.

"I was well pleased with the debate," says Mr. Burford," and although the boys were defeated they were exceptionally good and were a credit to themselves and to the high school. The composition was strong. Inspite of the fact that the boys put up a better debate than the team did against Bolckow they were defeated."

The Benton team had the negative side of the question and by their remarkable deliveries won the judges decision. Miss Lumox was their coach.

Next Week At the Movies

At The Empire

Betty Compson, the new Paramount star was seen to fine advantage in "The Little Minister," a splendid Paramount picture produced by Penrhyn Stanlaws, on its first presentation next Monday and Tuesday. This capable young star was charming as Lady Babbie and she brought to the role the gypsy-like character which it demands. All who have read the novel by James M. Barrie, or seen the play in which Maude Adams scored so decisively several years ago, will be delighted with this picture.

Miss Compson was ably supported by George Hackathorne as Gavin, the little minister and Nigel Barrie as the hateful Captain Halliwell. The entire cast indeed was beyond criticism and the settings showing the Thrums village, the manse, kirk and so on, were admirably executed. Much credit is due the producer, Penrhyn Stanlaws, for a well sustained and artistically presented screen version of this famous story.

When Will Rogers comes to the Empire Theater on Wednesday and Thursday in his latest Goldwyn picture, "An Unwilling Hero," a another famous story by O. Henry, America's best known short story writer, will have reached the screen. The original title of this story was "Whistling Dick's Christmas Stocking," and the leading character is a lovable tramp, whom Will Rogers can impersonate better than any actor now on the screen.

In "An Unwilling Hero" Will Rogers is a hobo who has a penchant for whistling operatic airs. His companions decide to commit a robbery, but this is beyond the whisling hobo's field of activities. Fearing him, the other tramps bind him to a tree, but he succeeds in warning the owner of a plantation of the plan to rob his home. As a reward, Whistling Dick (Will Rogers) is offered a job, but he remains true to the call of the road. How the unwilling hero manages to keep his hands from work results in some of the most humorous situations in which Will Rogers has ever found himself.

The picture was directed by Clarence Badger, who has held the megaphone in many previous Will Rogers photoplays.

On Friday and Saturday a new feature, "Wild Goose," will be shown. This is a special Paramount feature and is said to be one of the best recent productions of this company. No advance information has been received on this picture.

At The Electric

On Monday night the second episode of the new serial, "Winners of the West" will be shown. This is a historical picture of pioneer life and scenes are laid on the trail of the great trail-breaking expedition from Boonville, Mo., to California. Such well known historical pictures as John C. Fremont and Kit Carson are shown in the picture. There will also be a two reel western and a comedy.

On Tuesday and Wednesday Wanda Hawley will be seen in, "The Love Charm." In this picture she takes the role of Ruth Sheldon, a "poor relation," who used as household drudge and dressmaker by her aunt and cousin, with whom she lives. By her old-fashioned charm and womanliness, which remind him of his mother, she wins the affection of Thomas Morgan, a rich young man whom the Nasts have decided would be a good match for Hattis. The Nasts are furious with Ruth, who then promises to alienate Tom's love in the same way she had won it—by making herself a symbol, this time of something he hates—jazz and vulgarity. She makes a spectacle of herself at a noisy party, and Tom is disgusted. Ruth then leaves, but someone tells Tom why she had acted so, and he hunts her up to woo her all over again.

On Thursday night Pauline Frederick will be seen in the feature role of "Sting of the Lash."

Corinne Griffith will be featured Friday night in, "The Single Track."

"The Single Track" is a story of love, adventure and the regaining of a lost fortune. It is somewhat different in type from the usual Corinne Griffith production in that but a small portion of the story deals with society life. She is, however, afforded opportunity to wear many of the beautiful gowns for which she has become renowned. The picture is replete with dramatic, comedy and thrilling situations, and is as well rounded out as any photodrama.

"Who Am I?" a new National Picture, will be shown Saturday night.

The story is a tense, thrilling, dramatic plot based on the efforts of a beautiful girl to discover her true identity. The mystery surrounding her nativity is disclosed only to reveal another even more baffling.

The luxurious surroundings of a gambling house where fortunes are made and lost on the turn of a card form the background for a majority of the scenes, and the staging and costuming of this picture are said to set a new mark for extravagant and lavish expenditure on the part of the producers.

Subscription Rates Reduced

You can now subscribe for the good old St. Louis Globe-Democrat by mail at the following subscription rates effective February 1, 1922:

	Daily Only	Daily and Sunday
12 months	$6.00	$8.50
6 months	3.25	4.50
3 months	1.75	2.50

These prices are now back to normal and as low as formerly, considering that approximately $2.00 more per yearly subscription is paid the government for postage than a few years ago. This, of course, is not within the control of any newspaper.

Special Club-Raisers' Rates.

As in former years, the Globe-Democrat is making a special club-raisers' rate, reduced from the regular rates when three or more yearly subscriptions, by mail, are sent at one time. The club-raisers' rate now in force is $15.75 net for a club of three yearly subscriptions to the Daily (only) Globe-Democrat, or $23.25 for a club of three yearly Daily and Sunday Globe-Democrat subscriptions. This reduces the price to each club member to $5.25 for the Daily and $7.75 for the Daily and Sunday Globe-Democrat. More than three subscriptions can be included in a club, at the same club-raisers' rates.

Not a Reduction in Quality

This price reduction does not mean that either the quantity or quality that Globe-Democrat readers have grown accustomed to will be reduced. Regular readers will continue to enjoy and benefit by the same extensive up-to-the last minute news service, the same accurate complete market and financial reports, the same editorial page, renowned and quoted all over the world and the same vast store of unequalled features that have placed the Globe-Democrat among the leading newspapers in the universe.

LAMKIN MAKES PLEA FOR THE RURAL SCHOOL

President of S. T. C. In Address At Trenton Says Country School Don't Get Square Deal

The Trenton Republican-Tribune had the following in Friday's issue about Uel W. Lamkin:

Uel Lamkin, president of the Maryville State Teachers College made a plea for the rural schools Thursday night at the Methodist Church. His defense of them and his plea for help was forceful and appealing.

"We used to say," he started in his easy way, "that the home was responsible for its children and the education of them. Then we said the community or district is responsible, but now it is the state and nation."

This statement followed the declaration that he wanted to see the time come when the boy or girl living in the towns like Galt, and Spickard have the same opportunity as the boy who lives in the shadow of Soldan High School in St. Louis. He had gone further and stated that he wished to see the same opportunity accorded the boy in the country school as is accorded the boy and girl in the town and city schools.

"I still believe and think," he said, "that the hope of the nation lies in the Middle West in the country. I have been in the cities, but I am convinced that in the Middle West will be solved the great problems of this country."

Mr. Lamkin told of a survey in a county, the name of which he did not mention. They found in the county the rural school student far behind, and so far that the figures would not be made public.

Mr. Lamkin favored the county unit bill. The school district cuts up the money, he maintained, so that the county gets little benefit for the amount of money now spent on rural schools, if spent under the county unit system, would be a vast improvement to the schools. As a whole, it is said, it would not increase taxes. He grieved, he said over districts which paid for poor teachers for two or three pupils just because the tax rate was low.

Governor Hyde was complimented by Mr. Lamkin on his stand for the schools and the work he had done for them and is doing. Particularly did the Governor help the county unit bill."

DE MOLAY PLAY MAY BE GIVEN IN TARKIO

"Believe Me Xantippe" Will Probably Be Played In Connection With Forming of New Chapter

"Believe Me Xantippe," the home talent play which was presented by the local chapter, Order of De Molay two weeks ago, will probably be given in Tarkio sometime the last of the month. At this time a De Molay chapter will also probably be organizaed in that city.

Yesterday William Mapel and William Geist went to Tarkio and met several of the prominent Masons of that city and tentative plans were made to institute a De Molay chapter there. At a meeting of the Tarkio Masons next Thursday night the matter will be taken up and will be considered fully. If it is found that a chapter can be maintained in Tarkio, the degree teams from the Maryville chapter will go to Tarkio and give the work. They will also install the new officers of the Tarkio chapter.

It is also planned to give the De Molay play at the same time as the installation of the new chapter. If the proposed plan works out the Maryville cast will appear in Tarkio for two nights either the last of February or the first of March.

Plans are also being made to have a meeting with the leaders of the Masonic order in Stanberry in the near future and if possible to get a De Molay chapter installed there. The movement has been agitated there to some extent and a committee of De Molays will likely visit that city some time next week.

The local De Molays are well prepared to give all of the degree work. All of the robes and properties for that purpose are already in use and all of the parts of the degrees have been committed to memory.

If the chapters are installed in other towns, the DeMolay drill patrol of thirty-two members will accompany the degree teams and will give several exhibition drills.

This patrol may possibly be taken to the state Conclave of the De Molays which will be held at St. Louis next July.

LEGION LOST AT WESTBORO.

Court Was Small and Maryville Boys Were Handicapped.

The basketball team of the James Edward Gray Post, American Legion, was defeated by a score of 34 to 24 at Westboro last night. It is said that Westboro has a poor court with two stoves in it, so that is it almost impossible for a strange team to get onto the plays well enough to defeat the Westboro team, which has not been defeated on the home court in two years. It is said, however, that the Maryville boys held them last night to the closest score that they have had on the home court during the two year victorious period.

Following is the Maryville line-up Gilliam and Egley, forwards; Welling, center; Bock and Miller, Guards.
